3 Rigadritto

Paper Reverie

Picture a space where the mundane is banned, and only the extraordinary make the cut. At this fine stationery shop you'll find a bit of everything but most of all imaginative gifts and paper wonders for all ages.

4 The Cloister

Vintage Affair

This concept store is all about vintage, luxury, and creativity. Shop unique high-end finds and source artsy pieces in an unmatched setting just a few steps from the Duomo.

5 Laboratorio Paravicini

Tabletop Tales

Serve up a dose of Milanese style with these ceramics that are designed to make dining a joy. They're not just dinnerware; they're conversation starters, adding an extra layer of enjoyment to your soirées.

6 Sogni

Epicurean Dreams

Here culinary dreams come definitely to life. The ambiance is a captivating mix of nostalgia and sophistication while the restaurant's seafood menu is elegantly simple, and the bar a cozy spot for pre or after dinner drinks.

7 Gusto 17

Sweet Treats

If you find yourself in Milan and your sweet tooth is tugging at your heartstrings, stop by this artisanal ice cream shop, filled with retro-modern charm. They're all about celebrating natural gelato with seasonal ingredients. The hardest choice? How many scoops to get!

8 LijBar

Botanical Bites

Marie Antoinette would adore this Milanese greenhouse eatery, blending chic decor with greenery, in a former royal palazzo near an art museum. Perfect for a day of park strolls, admiring art, and enjoying all-day dining.

9 Terroir

Gourmet Pantry

Shopping here is an exquisite experience: every shelf is stocked with Italy's finest gourmet goodies! A great stop for snacks and gifts to bring back home with you or to eat while you sightsee.
